

About CVLC Center for Vietnamese Language and Culture – CVLC is an institution of Hanoi University of Social Sciences and Humanities (USSH), which was established by the Decision No.

2198/ ?HKHXHNV-TC

signed by the Rector of USSH on October 11, 2012.

1. CVLC's Function

- Offer short-term programs on the Vietnamese language and culture for foreigners and short-term courses of language and culture for the Vietnamese learners.
- Collaborate research programs and projects on the Vietnamese language and culture; compiles textbooks, lectures, reference books on language and culture.
- Cooperate with other domestic and foreign research organizations in programs of education, researching and academic exchange.
- Perform other works which are given by the Rector of VNU-USSH
-

2. CVLC's Organization

2.1 Board of Directors

•

Director:

Assoc. Prof. Nguyễn Hồng Cường

(Mr.)

•

Vice Director:

Assoc. Prof. Hoàng Anh Thi

(Ms.)

2.2 Scientific Council

2.3 Office

•

Education

Assistant: Nguyen Thi Nhu Quynh

Mobile: (84-4) 985.643.407

Email: nhuquynh1302@gmail.com

· Administrative Assistant: Nguyen Thi Thu Ha

Tel: (84-4) 169 4813 477

Email: tieulonghaha@gmail.com 3. CVLC's Activities 3.1 Teaching

·
Offer short-term and intensive programs in the Vietnamese language and culture for foreigners

·
Offer short-term programs in the language and culture for Vietnamese people

3.2 Research

·
Collaborate research projects in the Vietnamese language and culture

·
Organize workshops and conferences on language and culture

·
Compile textbooks and references about the Vietnamese language and culture

3.3 Cooperation

·
Co-operate to organize education, researching and academic exchange programs

·
Co-operate to compile and publish works on language and culture

·
Co-operate to organize workshops and seminars on language and culture